This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that candidate absence from examinations at Redborne Upper School is managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations and reflects centre practice.

References in this policy to ICE and SC refer to the JCQ documents Instructions for conducting examinations and A guide to the special consideration process.

Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to confirm the arrangements for candidates who are absent from an examination at Redborne Upper School.

An absent candidate may subsequently arrive once the exam is underway, becoming a late or very late arrival, at which point Redborne Upper School reserves the right to exercise discretion whether to allow a candidate who arrives after the start of the examination to sit the examination. (See Candidate Late Arrival Policy)

Based upon the circumstances for the absence, and subject to the required criteria being met, an application for special consideration may also be made to the relevant awarding body.

1. Identifying and dealing with candidate absence

A candidate will be considered absent from an examination if:

- the candidate is not present on completion of the attendance register, once candidates are seated and have started the examination.

Once a candidate is identified as absent from an examination, the following action will be taken:

- The candidate will be contacted as to their whereabouts and as far as possible arrangements made to ensure their immediate arrival

If a candidate fails to sit an examination, the following action is taken:

- A confirmed candidate absence is clearly recorded on the attendance register which is sent to the awarding body/examiner
- The candidate absence is noted on the seating plan by crossing through the candidate details

2. Roles and responsibilities

3. Special consideration

At Redborne Upper School if a candidate is absent from a timetabled written examination for an acceptable reason, the candidate may be eligible for special consideration. This is where an adjustment may be made to the candidate's mark or grade by the awarding body, providing the following conditions are met:

- The examination is in the candidate's terminal exam series (SC 4.2)
- The candidate has completed or will be able to complete the required percentage of the assessment to meet the minimum requirements for enhanced grading in cases of acceptable absence (SC 4.5)
- The application for special consideration can be supported by the centre with appropriate evidence authorised by a member of the senior leadership team (SC 6)

It is the responsibility of the following member(s) of staff to deal with special consideration requests and applications:

- Donna Nunn
