Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy is to confirm that candidates leaving the examination room at Redborne Upper School is managed in line with JCQ regulations.

This policy confirms:

- the correct procedures are followed in relation to candidates leaving the examination room
- Redborne Upper School reserves the right to exercise discretion whether to allow extra time to compensate candidates for their temporary absence from the examination room

1. Arrangements for leaving the examination room

- For examinations that last one hour or more, candidates must stay under centre supervision until 10.00am for a morning examination or 2.30pm for an afternoon examination, i.e. one hour after the awarding body's published starting time for that examination (ICE 23.1)
- For examinations that last less than one hour, candidates must be supervised until the awarding body's published finishing time for that examination

In all cases regardless of the duration of the examination, question papers must be kept in the secure room until 24 hours after the awarding body's published finishing time for that examination (ICE 23.2)

- Candidates who are allowed to leave the examination room temporarily must be accompanied by a member of centre staff. This must not be the candidate's subject teacher or a subject expert for the examination in question (ICE 23.3)

Candidates may be allowed extra time at the discretion of the centre to compensate for their temporary absence (ICE 23.5)

- Candidates can only leave the examination room where necessary or where supervised rest breaks have been granted by the SENCo. The centre must ensure that candidates who leave the room do not have access to any unauthorised materials (ICE 23.4)
- Candidates who have finished the examination and have been allowed to leave the examination room early must hand in their script, question paper and any other material before they leave the examination room. Those candidates must not be allowed back into the room (ICE 23.6)
- At the end of the examination, candidates must hand in their script, question paper and any other material before they leave the examination room (ICE 23.7) when candidates, without a known medical condition/those not approved supervised rest breaks, wish to use the toilet, they may be allowed to leave the room temporarily. The student will be asked to raise their hand and a member of staff will accompany them from their seat to the toilet, walking behind them to ensure the integrity of the examination.

- Candidates who are allowed to leave the examination room temporarily may be allowed extra time to compensate for their temporary absence (ICE 23.5)

Extra time will not be allowed for a normal toilet break but may be awarded for a longer break e.g. candidate is

Additional arrangements:

Not applicable.

2. Roles and responsibilities

The role of the exams office

- Through training, ensure invigilators are aware how candidates who may be allowed to leave the examination room temporarily should be managed and recorded

Additional responsibilities:

Not applicable.

The role of the invigilator

- Ensure a candidate who may be allowed to leave the examination room temporarily is accompanied by a member of centre staff who is not the candidate's subject teacher or a subject expert for the examination in question (ICE 23.3)
- Record instances on the exam room incident log of candidates who may be allowed to leave the examination room temporarily because they may be feeling unwell or require a toilet break (ICE 20.2)
- Ensure candidates who have finished the examination and have been allowed to leave the examination room early hand in their script, question paper and any other material before they leave the examination room. Ensure those candidates are not allowed back into the room (ICE 23.6)
- At the end of the examination, ensure candidates hand in their script, question paper and any other material before they leave the examination room (ICE 23.7)

Invigilators will record every event on the incident log whatever the circumstances. They will include details of how the timings for any candidate who will be compensated for their temporary absence from the exam room will be managed and the candidate's amended finishing time calculated/made known to the candidate.

Additional responsibilities:

Not applicable.

Changes effective from 1 September 2026

(Updated) Bullet points updated to reflect the slight change in wording and requirement in ICE 23.2 (Question papers must be kept in the secure room until 24 hours after the awarding body's published finishing time).

(Added) Optional insert field added to record the arrangements/what must happen if a candidate leaves the examination room unaccompanied within the period of required supervision.
